

THE HISTORY OF YAQUB

Knowledge is power. Being without it is most detrimental to oneself. Wisdom is the Creator HERSELF. And those who despise wisdom and instruction are fools in Prov. 1:7 of the Christian Bible. Furthermore, one should aspire to "...know wisdom and instruction; to perceive the words of understanding..." in Prov. 1"2.

With these thoughts, bear in mind that the history of the Moorish nation and all of its related subjects have not been taught since 1863 here in North America. They have been eliminated from public libraries and the curriculum of all institutions of higher learning, high schools, colleges, and universities of the U.S.A. and abroad of the white society. And unfortunately the white society has educated the "Negros" to believe that their forefathers were brought from Africa to the U.S.A. as "Negro" slaves. This is the biggest white lie the world has ever known and is the basic reason why whenever truth appears among blacks the majority will flee from it laden with fear, jealousy, hatred, and violence. For you see, the blacks of North America believe that they have been told the truth all along-- but they haven't. So when truth appears they react negatively toward it. As a matter of fact they will not believe anything unless it comes out of the white man's mouth, the white man's educational institutions, or his formal publications. This is all the result of the lack of knowledge of truth. Paradoxically though, this great truth is the great body that will make them free. Again, referring to the Christian Bible in which blacks believe, St. Paul says prove all things; hold fast to that which is good. The following evidence shall be proof of the good toward which the "Negros" should hold fast.

The original ancient North, Central, and South Africa is known today as North, Central, and South America. They comprise the cradle of humanity and civilization and are also the lands of the Moabite-Moorish nation. This is originally the land of our real forefathers and there is no traditional history which can go beyond this. Our Moorish ancestors descended from the dark-skinned Moabite nation and we ourselves are the direct descendants of the Moorish nation. What our forefathers were we are today--without a doubt--and the fact remains that our inherited nationality is still Moorish, not "Negro." At this point you are advised to endeavor to govern your emotions with an open mind. The ORIGIN of the name "Negro" is the basic reason why blacks have been both feared and hated so badly by the red pale-skinned people of the white society in the U.S.A.

We are aware of the fact that the category of astrology, global geography, and the history of the Moorish nation will conflict with nine out of every ten persons of the U.S.A., especially those often referred to as "Negros" owing to their Christian education.

They have been too deeply instilled with emotional religious doctrines and distorted history written by prejudiced European-American educators during the past one hundred years. This group emotionally relies upon that which they have been taught to believe. Facts and testimony are not the foundation of their faith, except in very rare cases. These people accept without question the beliefs of those among whom they are born and reared, and will disbelieve even the evidences of their senses rather than abandon the impractical emotional religious beliefs which have grown in them.

Today religious worshippers have proven to the entire world that they would rather resort to emotional human hatred and fight, suffer and die over the name of the mystical God and religion than reasonably agree with simplified and applied truth. While reading these notes you are advised to endeavor to be guided by common, sound reasoning rather than by emotions which are the result of your traditional belief in the doctrines of religion.

We are aware of the fact that the illustration of the science of the twelve signs of the zodiac, the history of the Moabite-Moorish nation, and the history of the Franciscan Anglo-Saxon nations are confusing to the reader owing to limited education of the majority of the masses. Nevertheless, the true history is that the Moorish nation rose out of the corruption of the Moabite nation of this hemisphere over 1371 years ago (calculated from 1951). The Franciscan nations rose out of the corruption of the Moorish nation of this hemisphere in 1863, the era of the Union. The only true history during the past 1300 years is that of the Moorish nation.

THE EDENIC GARDEN

In the year 49,000 A.M. Yaqub produced the red-skinned people, with animalistic experimentation of 12 Moabite woman and the Negro Javero Araba chimpanzee, which resulted in the name Negro.

The Moabite masters studied man as a creative being. Their motto was "Man know thyself, and thou wilt know the universe and the gods." Man is the microcosm of the macrocosm. He is the epitome of all worlds and all powers, He is the focusing and condensing point of the countless electro-magnetic currents which, in energizing, become what may be called the living, conscious, vital electricity of incredible voltage, but hardly comparable to the form of electricity known to physicists.

This magical creative power is variously symbolized in the Bible, and in one place is mentioned as the bush that burned with fire, but was not consumed (Ex. 3:2; Acts 7:30). This powerful force, however, is a double-edge sword that cuts both ways. It exhorts or degrades, improves or destroys, depending on the conditions. If activated unnaturally without the power to control it would give its deadly sting to him in whom it was so unwisely awakened.

For example, some people say that this same creative force was unnaturally activated by Yaqub when he created the red man because Yaqub did not have one hundred percent control over each of his subjects. As a result the creation multiplied beyond any kind of control, leading to the great sting of the asiatic Moorish nation around the world, and especially to the blacks in North America. This is why some people call Yaqub the devil.

Yucatan, Yaccatan or Yuqaten. Mixicu or Mexico (Mixicu meaning mixed) is the ancient land of Judah, Ham, Mu, the Cushite and Kkhaldean nations, and the Garden of Eden, all of which were established by Yaqub Isra-El, the last great genius and scientist of the Moabite nation. Also located here is the great Pyramid University of the original ancient Central Africa. This Pyramid University is 24,000 years and is the oldest university in the world. Naturally it was built by the master Mason craftsmen of the Moabite nation. It contains the geometry, Latin, algebra, calculus, trigonometry and calculations of the Moon, Sun and seven planets of the zodiac constitution law of the universe concerning the cycles of the evolution of both man and the universe.

Yaqub Isra-El is called the father or God of the twelve tribes of Isra-El. Remember, however, that people only call God their father where fatherhood is a prominent feature of their social organization; likewise, they only call God a king when they have a king as a part of their political economy. The twelve tribes which comprise the human family are the Moorish nation. However, the basic reason why some Moors label themselves "Jews" is in honor of Yaqub Isra-El, the "Jewel" of the twelve tribes of Israel, the creator of the red man (the white), the top tribe of Yaqub's creation.

All Bible prophecy was handed down by Muur-Lu-Ah-Kin-El, the last High Priest and Prophet of the Moabite nation of ancient Mexico. Also, he passed on to his son, Yaqub KauKasus Kushitus, also known as the "big headed scientist," all of the ancient wisdom of the family priestly clan. At this time the Moabites had tremendous spiritual powers and could have used them to humanize mankind and to control the creation, growth, and development of the material world in harmony with nature. Instead, they expanded their scientific knowledge through the use of black magic and used this knowledge for purely selfish materialistic enterprizes. The corrupt nation was on its last legs, for its people had even gone as far as to alter the beautiful weather in Eden, and to cause catastrophic upheavals in weather conditions round the world.

Today, as a result of this "sin," this blatant abuse of power, for the majority of mankind the divine eye or spiritual vision no longer functions. But it has left a witness to its existence in the pineal gland. When the spiritual element in man reigned supreme over the intellectual and psychic elements, the third eye (the pineal gland) was an active organ in that stage of evolution. During human life the greatest impediment to spiritual development, and especially to the acquirement of yoga powers, is the acitivity of our physiological senses. When the divine powers and attributes of the god-like man of the Moabite nation had been made the servants of the newly awakened physiological and psychic passions of the physical man, then the third eye lost its power of vision. The sin was not in using the newly developed creative powers, but in abusing them. There can be no physical iniquity, as the body is simply the organ of the spiritual man and in the case of the Moabites it was precisely the spiritual being which "sinned." If man's use of physical body should be such that he could be neither animal nor spirit being, then he must be born hu-man, not angelic. (Hu is from the German language and it means spirit being; man is also from the German and it refers to the animal part of mankind.) Hence tradition shows that higher involved beings offer themselves as the redeemers of man by endowing him with human affections and ASPIRATIONS.

The fall of the Moabite nation was the conclusion of a cycle of experiences just as all things begin, live through, and finish cycles of experiences. At the same time a new cycle of experiences was beginning for different types of beings. Out of the ruins of the old comes the birth of the new. This is an eternal truth and it applies to all modes of life, from the simple atom to entire galaxies. As above, so below!

Realizing this, Yaqub took the best of what was being destroyed, 12 female Moabite genius scientists, and mated them with a being in whom Yaqub saw the seed for a potential, much improved future race of men to people the Earth during the cycle. In short, the best of what was being destroyed of the Moabite nation was blended together with the potential best in order to bring forth a new race of man, much improved over the one at that time. The name that is given that being is NEGRO JAVERO ARABA ANIMAL CHIMPANZEE.

At the time Yaqub's experiments the atmosphere was very different. There were planets in the solar system that are no longer visible in this day and age. Having inherited tremendous occult knowledge and mystical powers from his priestly father, Muur-Lu-Ah-Kin-El, Yaqub was able to communicate with beings from other planets who were even more mystically steeped in magic and science than he was; he even traveled to their own planets with them in order to increase his own knowledge. In the forth chapter of Genesis, references are made to some of these beings from outer space who were called the "Sons of God." Yaqub learned how to experiment with all forms of magic, and it is even stated in the Vol. 2 of the Secret Doctrine, by H. P. Blavatsky, that the Divine Kings descended and taught men sciences and arts, for man could no longer live in the first land (Eden).

A knowledge of biology, anatomy, organic chemistry, pigmentation, botany, electronics, and the magnetic laws of opposite attraction involving steel and iron elements were some of the sciences that the woman scientists and Yaqub used to create the ruddy-skinned sons trough animalistic experimentation so as to manifest the great human Boquet through a measurable process of global amalgamation with the Asiatic nation. But much more important than their knowledge of the physical sciences was their understanding of the occult or hidden forces which were utilized to make manifest the object of their experiments.

Seeing the errors which were resulting in the collapse and ruin of his generation, Yaqub, possessing a tremendous ego, desired to show the ruling Moabite officials that his brilliance could produce better beings. But even though he was refused his hearts desire, he was still given dominion over a group of islands on which he was allowed to study and to conduct experiments. With a partly twisted purpose in mind (to "show up" the Moabites), and to humanize the present civilization in order to keep it on the upswing, he labored for forty years on these islands until his experiments bore fruit. Yaqub then used the mountain and jungle regions of Yucatan, Honduras, Venezuela, Argentina, and the Amazon jungle of Brazil as the environments for his first creations. The waters of the Gulf of Mexico, the Caribbean Sea, and the islands of the Pacific Ocean were used in addition to Central and South America.

Yacub took the best of the Moabite nation which represented CIVILIZATION, INTELLECT and SPIRITUALITY and mated it with the potential best of the upcoming race which represented CUNNING, RUTHLESSNESS and SPIRITUALITY. These experiments resulted in the culmination of the fall of the Moabite civilization and the rise of another which brought ignorance, superstition, human hatred, amalgamation, medical science, human warfare, bloodshed, destruction, starvation and sorrow. Such is the great price humanity has paid for the "Human Bouquet."

Using strict and rigid birth control laws, Yaqub mated the first created ruddy-skinned sons with the Asiatic woman. She in turn producted both male and female of the rudy, pale tone of skin. He then mated rudy-skinned sons with the pale skinned females in order for them to reproduce their own kind of the same shade of skin, both male and female. All Europeans are the decendents of the Asiatic woman and her son Yaqub. Thus the Asiatic woman is definitely the god of love and wisdom, who what some Muslims term the "devil" and her "sons", converted the world into that which is termed hell.

Prior to the creation of the ruddy-skinned, blond, hairy-bodies sons, the diseases of leprosy, T. B., and syphilis were unknown to the kinky-haired, olive-hued or dark brown-skinned Asiatic nation. Moreover, Yaqub and his staff of scientists discovered that the amalgamation between the Asiatic sons and the blond females was the greatest weapon to combat the new diseases. It was also necessary for the blond sons to become social isolates on the islands of the high seas in order to prevent the spread of the new and dreaded diseases.

During this period the blond woman lost their identity as a result of long processes of amalgamation. The diseases disappeared with the ruddy shade of skin on global scales. The light olive-skinned Asiatic with straight or curly black hair, and with black or dark brown eyes resulted. These amalgamated Asiatics were endowed with cunning and wisdom. It was this group which resorted to amalgamation with the outcast blond sons of the islands which resulted in the mass reproduction of blond children who paved the way for the great rise of the outcast "sons of leprosy" through the powerful intriguing influence of the ruddy-skinned blond daughters, referred to as the "Red Queen Tribal Rulers." With their red son chieftans they promoted vandalism in the northern hemisphere. They are the ones who were on the indian trails--because the white people are the real indians!

THE DIRECT ANCESTORS OF RED PEOPLE

Yaquḅ Kaukasus Kushitus called these red-skinned people Negros, in honor of the Negro Javero Araba Chimpanzee--their literal earthly father! Yaquḅ gave his last name to the light olive and yellow skinned children of his creation with straight or curly black hair and black or dark brown eyes, namely, Kushitus Isra-El or Kush Isra-El. This resulted in the mighty Kushite nation, the Babylonian, and the Khaldean nation.

Furthermore, Yaquḅ called the darker complexioned members of his creations, Kaucasians or Causasions, after his own middle name. Thus the Asiatic nation which comprises three--fourths of the world's population are the Caucasians, and the Europeans are the Negros. Now don't you see how confused the "Negros" (blacks) of North America really are?

It is not in the course of natural law that man should become a perfect being all at once. Mankind must evolve. Yet he has all the seven principles latent in himself from his birth. He must learn to develop these latent tendencies. The fifth principle of mind develops slowly; moreover, the sixth principle, spiritual mind, is developed even more slowly. Those who were ready, and received but a spark of the fifth principle constitute the average humanity which has to acquire its intellectuality during the present cycle of evolution, after which they will be ready in the next cycle for the full reception of the "Sons of Wisdom." Whereas those who were not at all ready are the latest human species who are hardly evolved from their last transitional lower forms. These people whose reasoning powers are very little above those of the animals are not unjustly treated by nature. It is just that they are simply the latest arrivals among the human family that were not ready for intellectual stimulation but who have to evolve during the present cycle.

Evolution is an eternal cycle of becoming, we are taught, and nature never leaves an atom unused. Moreover, from the beginning everything in nature tends to become man. All the impulses of the dual centripetal and centrifugal forces are directed towards one point, man. This began with astral man who is the reflection of the creative powers called the builders. Man is the alpha and the omega of objective creation. All souls that incarnate on this planet come seeking knowledge. These essences, intelligences, and conscious spirits are entities seeking to become more conscious by uniting with more developed matter. These essences are too pure to be distinct from the universal essence, but they desire material experiences, so they must pass through earthly human experiences to become all wise and to be able to return to their original state by an ascending evolutionary cycle.

COLOR AND VIBRATION

When ordinary colors such as water colors, oils, crayons, pastels, etc., are blended, they form a brownish--black color. These colors are all considered to be static or "dead". However, when all the various shades of skin tones and complexions of humanity are blended, the last stage is white. When one's vibrations are lifted to their highest visible physical stage, they are white light. This is true because man is a dynamic being rather than a static one. Hence the Patagonian blond, ruddy skinned creations of Yaqub are the sum total of all the races. But stop! Do not panic! If the incarnating ego does not control this sensitive "white" body with its high strung nervous system, then it commits suicide when under stress, and all the other abominable and degenerate acts that Europeans are known to do. Therefore to what avail has such a body benefited the person?

Steeped in the mystic arts, Yaqub (Jacob) knew all of this and it is the basic reason why he has been interpreted so differently. Some say that the word Yaqub means "the devil"; others say it means "the preserver." At any rate Yaqub as "the devil" simply refers to the mastery over the mystic arts. Devil or demon implies demon-god or demi-god. Yaqub, through his studies and knowledge of the solar system, realized that the demi-gods who were in control had knowledge of strange and terrible sciences. In some of the ancient writings these gods are referred to as the Lucifer Spirits. The European has now changed this to the evil principle referred to as Lucifer or Satan the person. Knowing that our solar system is controlled by the lucifer spirits, Yaqub used the mystical arts and sciences to create the people who are now the masters of the material world. To obtain this knowledge he learned the ritual of the demi-god in charge of the scientific knowledge he sought, fasted, and waited for the response. Thus Yaqub became the master of the material planet Earth. His creations (white men) are a true Yaqub because they have the knowledge of their creator. The white people know they are the children of Yaqub and they do not have to be told. They give hints about this knowledge in books so you can see the pathways and avenues of acquiring it. But to make the pathway dark and rough the European or Aryan changed the language to modern English as a smoke screen. The original English was derived from the ancient language of the Druids, beings who were known for their terrible mystical sciences. Genesis 35:10 and 25:25 are biblical verifications for Yaqub's creations and the blessings his father gave him. Only the history (his story) has been confused as a result of the European's ability to mystify and confuse others. Those changes were finally completed during the Revolutionary War of 1776 up until the Christian Unionized States Society of 1854-1863.

Today, the masses would call the knowledge that Yaqub had, magic (the magic of tradition in the popular mind) and tricks. In reality, though, it is YOGA! Keep in mind, too, that the ignorance of modern Western science about yoga caters to the masses mistakingly calling it magic or a bag of tricks. On the spiritual plane everything is out in the open. There is no ignorance therefore there is no world of illusion. Man's ignorance of the invisible forces that move the universe is due to his crystalized state in gross matter. And since higher beings can look right through these bodies, this physical plane is also an astral plane of sorts. The wonders of the universe are infinite.

In ancient Egypt it was magic that attained to the grade of completion as a cosmic science and was formulated as a perfect doctrine. Creation is the great magic. The great mysteries of the universe are the creative processes constantly occurring all around us, yet so trite and common to us that we never note nor reflect upon them. The knowledge given to Yaqub by his father and the Cosmic Masters (the space people) was cosmogic. It was knowledge of all past knowledge. This is what being "given the eight ball" refers to. Scorpio the eighth sign of the zodiac, the sign of wisdom and the eighth house, the house of death, legacies and inheritances. These legacies are the mystic arts and black and white magic. Magic or magi means science and astro order.

In 49,000 P.M. (Pre-Moorish), Yaqub created the European, partly for his own personal reasons, and also as a counter measure for the sins of the Moabite nation. In the Bible these experiments which resulted in the twelve tribes of Isra-El or Jacob's ladder are a human bouquet, the different races of man. It was after the creation of these twelve tribes that Muur-Lu-Ah-Kin-El, the father of Yaqub Kaukasus Kushitus (Jacob in the Christian Bible), changed his name to Yaqub Isra-El. This too is mentioned in Genesis thirty-five. All of this caused the Earth pain due to the horrible scientific experiments, yet out of this pain came pleasure and beauty and an opportunity for human development. Jacob's ladder represents communion between man, the seer, and the adept. Jacob was in communion with God, meaning he possessed clairaudience and clairvoyance. The name Israel is derived from asar, the Sun God, sometimes known as suryal, surya, and sur. Israel means, in short, "striving with God."

THE SEMITES

The Semetic nations known in traditional history are the Babylonians, Assyrians, Aramaeans, Phoenicians, Hebrews, Edomites, Moabites, Ammorites, Carthaginians (Moors of north Africa), the Arabs (named after Negro Javero Araba), and the Abyssinians. The Semetic languages are closely akin to one another and they are also the first phonetic corruptions of the eldest children of early Sanscrit. The Semites, especially the Arabs, later the Aryans, were degenerate in spirituality but perfected in materiality. A close kinship also exists between the Semitic peoples and the people called Hamitic, the Egyptians, Berbers, and the tribes of Somaliland. Yaqub's sons and daughters have given themselves many names, most common of which are Afcan (African), Indian, Spanish, Ethiopian, Graco or Greek, Jew and Chinese.
